

ABOUT POTENTIAL SURFACES
OF MOLECULAR EXCIMERS

O.A. Khakhel'

Institute of Physics, Nat. Acad. Sci. of Ukraine
(46, Nauky Prosp., Kyiv 03028, Ukraine)

S u m m a r y

The method of treatment of the fluorescence spectra of molecular excimers, which is intended for experimental determination of the parameters characterizing the density of energy states in the excimer potential, is described. The analysis of the temperature dependences for the fluorescence spectra of crystalline pyrene is carried out by this method.