

HIGH RESOLUTION REVERSIBLE HOLOGRAM
RECORDING IN PHOTOREFRACTIVE CRYSTALS

G. von Bally, R. Thien, B. Kemper

Laboratory of Biophysics, University of Münster (45, Robert-Koch Str., D-48149 Münster, Germany; e-mail: lbiophys@uni-muenster.de)

S u m m a r y

The optimizing of the recording geometry for pulsed-laser hologram recording in silicosillenite crystals allows for the improvement of lateral resolution in the images and interferograms up to 1 μm .